

KIDDICCINO

...where kids have fun

Summer 2010

And so term one comes to an end! I hope you've all had a lovely summer - especially once it finally decided to warm up a bit!

We managed to get lots of use out of our marquee and paddling pools thanks to lots of sunny Mondays, and it's been great to see the littlies enjoying the deck and outdoor space.

Thank you to everyone who has come along and supported Kiddiccino - we've certainly loved meeting you all and hope that you've enjoyed the sessions as much as we have.

With Easter coming up, it's a good time to celebrate resurrection and the new life, hope and beginnings that children can bring to our lives.

Have a lovely break, and we're looking forward to seeing you all soon!

Roll on Term 2! Mel xxx

Storytime!

We are now offering a Storytime session, every Monday morning from 10-10.30am in the church before Kiddiccino. Story choice is aimed at the level of the kids who are there on the day and includes a fairytale, a contemporary kids' story and a bible story. No cost, just come along!

Facebook

The Kiddiccino Facebook page now has a discussion board where you can share helpful hints, info about upcoming community events etc. Feel free to add to it!

Thanks!

Once again, we would like to say a big thank you to our dedicated team of people who set up, make morning tea, clean up and generally help things run smoothly. Angela, Brenda, Janice, Margi, Roger, Etienne, Katerina, Liz, Wendy, Gail, Jackie and Pam we couldn't do it without you, thank you so much!!!!

If you are able to help with setting up or cleaning up and wouldn't mind being added to our roster, please let us know - many hands make light work! Even just popping things back in their bags towards the end of the session if your child is the last one playing with it is much appreciated, thanks!

* Kiddiccino supports families in times of crisis or upheaval - be it a new baby, a death in the family or other family crises. Let us know if you are able to help provide the odd meal to others in need, or if you know of a family that could do with some help.

* If you are able to provide the odd morning tea for Kiddiccino and wouldn't mind being added to a bimonthly roster we would love to hear from you!
